

Welcome to Oak Hills Church!

We've come to worship God together. We hope you sense the Spirit of Jesus among us and share the joy of praising God. Please join us for refreshments after worship and meet someone new.

Worship guests, please sign a guest card found in the racks in the pew in front of you, and place it in the offering plate.

Facing Life's Challenging Questions series Summer 2010
This summer we're considering facing questions at the boundaries of life where most of us don't want to push too far. These contemporary probing questions explore what trying to live life without God is like. We'll investigate the hardships and happiness, work and play, control and limits everyone experiences. Ecclesiastes takes us on a journey to discover our human limits, the wonder of God's wisdom and the peace of God that comes as you stop groping through life on your own.

TODAY

WHY DO WE WORK SO HARD? Ecclesiastes 4:7-16

What drives you to work? You want to make a difference in community and be significant. Maybe you started that way, but now you work because that's who you've become. Besides, working provides for the nice things that help you enjoy your life. But is that all? Is that enough? God calls us beyond our work and self to participate with others ...and essentially to join the work that God is doing. (Ps. 90:17; Eph.4:28)

DEACONS' REPORT

So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what the right hand is doing so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you. Matthew 6:2-4
